About the Organizations

Data & Society Research Institute is focused on the social and cultural issues arising from data-centric technological development. To advance public understanding of the issues, Data & Society brings together diverse constituencies, hosts events, does directed research, creates policy frameworks, and builds demonstration projects that grapple with the challenges and opportunities of a data-soaked world. For more information, visit http://www.datasociety.net.

The Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights is a coalition charged by its diverse membership to promote and protect the civil and human rights of all persons in the United States. Through advocacy and outreach to targeted constituencies, The Leadership Conference works toward the goal of a more open and just society - an America as good as its ideals. For more information on The Leadership Conference and its 200-plus member organizations, visit www.civilrights.org

Upturn is a technology and policy consulting firm based in Washington DC. Upturn works together with non-profit and philanthropic organizations on a broad range of issues, including civil rights, privacy, government transparency and Internet freedom. Among other work, Upturn publishes Equal Future, a weekly newsletter on how technology is changing the social justice landscape.
